YEAR OF MISSION

This week's celebration of the gift of the Eucharist reminds us of who and what we are called to be for others – Christ. We come together, Sunday by Sunday, to be reminded that we are made one in Christ through our celebration of the Eucharist, but we come together scattered from the 'corners' of our parish to be gathered and 'put together' as the Body of Christ united with its Head, Christ, so that broken and sent out we might truly be Christ for our world. What we receive in the Eucharist is what we are called to be for our world. Become what you receive! Should that not be our mission each and every week? If we encounter love in the Eucharist, then we must be love through the lives we live. If we encounter mercy and forgiveness, then we must be mercy and forgiveness during the week. Be conscious of being sent out this week at Mass. Let your Thanks be to God be an acceptance of the challenge to be Christ in all you do during the next seven days.
